

Comments

This is the EHR test plan.

It involves display and incorporation verification at different levels (see juror document for details). To support real-time dynamic testing, the Tester at their discretion, may selectively modify compendium data prior to importing the test message into the EHR technology.