

Description

These test plans are designed to test capability to process maximally populated message (all the R, RE, C(a/b) elements defined in the implementation guide), the progression from a 'final' to 'corrected' report, and to report the test was not performed due to a specimen quality issue.