

Description

This test plan is designed to test the system's capability to: a) produce a typically populated order for a two panels and a single test on a patient who is a minor with guardian information and b) produce a typically populated order for an add-on laboratory test (Scenario 2 in the Use Case section of the guide).).