Description

This test plan is designed to test the systems' capability to process reflex test reports which use the parent/child reporting structure.